Dyehouse Films are making an exciting and insightful new documentary series for young people. In the series, we will follow curious children as they take viewers across borders and continents to a place they have a direct and family or cultural connection with.

We are calling on children between the ages of 8-13 years, from across the country to apply to take part in this exciting series and become young explorers, allowing viewers to see the world through their eyes as they use a special "Journeycam" to document their travels and different cultural encounters.

The last eighteen months have been incredibly challenging, especially for those of us who have been unable to travel to see family abroad. As restrictions begin to ease, we are looking to hear from parents / guardians of children who are planning a trip to visit family or friends. We'd love to hear from you!

To find out more, please tell us, in your child's own words, a little bit about the journeys they might make to see family. Tell us how they might get there – by car, airplane, ferry - who they might meet and what interesting cultural differences they might encounter.

We will be filming during school holidays 2021/2022 (Midterm, Christmas, Easter, Summer).
